

THE NORTH CAROLINA NATIONAL ESTUARINE RESEARCH RESERVE'S
COASTAL TRAINING PROGRAM PRESENTS:

Getting to Know Wetlands: Value, Regulations & Conservation

September 23, 2009

NOAA/NCNERR Auditorium, Pivers Island, Beaufort

- 8:30am Registration & Coffee
- 9am Welcome & Introduction
Whitney Jenkins, NC Coastal Reserve
- 9:10am Wetland Value & Functions; Coastal Wetland Delineation & Plant Species Identification
Dr. Jill Fegley, NC Coastal Reserve
- 10:10am Break
- 10:25am Field Trip: Coastal Wetland Delineation & Plant Identification
Dr. Jill Fegley & Coastal Reserve Staff
- 11:25am NC Division of Coastal Management's Coastal Wetland Regulations
David Moye, Express Permit Coordinator, NC Division of Coastal Management
- 12:10pm Lunch (provided)
- 1pm US Army Corp of Engineers' Freshwater Wetlands Regulations
Mickey Sugg, Project Manager, US Army Corps of Engineers
- 1:35pm NC Division of Water Quality's Freshwater Wetland Regulations & NC Wetland Assessment Method (NCWAM)
Cyndi Karoly, Wetland Program Development Unit, NC Division of Water Quality
- 2:35pm Q & A with Regulators
David Moye, NC Division of Coastal Management;
Mickey Sugg, Project Manager, US Army Corps of Engineers; and Cyndi Karoly, NC Division of Water Quality
- 3pm Break
- 3:15pm Using Low Impact Development (LID) to Conserve Wetlands: New Hanover County, Brunswick County & City of Wilmington LID Manual & LID-EZ Tool
Brigit Flora, Stormwater Engineer, Brunswick County
- 4pm Wetland Restoration Projects
Kristin Miguez, Project Manager, Ecosystem Enhancement Program